

JONATHAN KOH {許華強}

After completing secondary 4 at St Joseph's Institution, Jonathan started playing professionally at the age of 24 after serving the Singapore Army and 3 years of employment as a water/sewage pump Sales executive. Gaining experience and discovering his own playing style at the Singapore night scene, he became a recording engineer after 8 years of playing in various clubs and recording sessions.

Joining Midi-Citi Recording studio in 1989, he was exposed to numerous Taiwanese and local artistes and producers like Sky Wu Su Rei, Eric Moo and Dick Lee. He was also involved in numerous Taiwanese recordings at that time playing various roles including guitarist, backup vocal secessionist and recording engineer. He was asked to produce Eric Moo million selling album "太笨" and was subsequently involved in most of Eric albums that followed. Following that he was also called to produce for various artistes such as AMei[張惠妹], Jeff Chang, Dick lee and others.

After leaving Midi-Citi studio in 1992, he was heavily involved in concerts, producing, writing and guitar sessions. In 1997, he wrote the hit song "解脫">{She's Gone} for Taiwanese Amei [張惠妹] which became a major hit and was also involved in 4 major Amei's Asia concert tour in 1998, 1999 and 2004 as well as the recent 59 shows Ameizing tour (Aug 2011-March 2013) . As of June, 2015, he is currently touring with Jeff Chang on his "Love Light Year" china tour.

Jonathan had written songs for Jeff Chang, Panda Xiong, Eric Moo, Kenny Bee, Power Station, Chiang Mei Chi, Fish Leong, Sammi Cheng, William So, Fan Fan amongst various Taiwanese artistes.

As a guitar player, apart from Amei he has also toured or/and recorded with Sally Yeh and George Lam, Eric Moo, Chang Yue, Jacky Cheung, Na Ying, Singapore's own Dick lee, Stephanie Sun, Corrine May and various others. He was also involved in local musicals Beauty World, A Soldier and his virtuous wife, Tien Len, Lao Jiu and The Admiral's Odyssey.

Nowadays, Jonathan is using his God given gifts in preaching the Gospel of Christ and mentoring worship teams locally as well as in China, Malaysia, Taiwan, Italy and North America.

Jonathan resides in Singapore with his wife, Dora and his children Kelly, Sara and Luke.
