

MS ERNAWATY SORIANO, Director of Project M Pte Ltd

Project M was founded by Cultural Medallion Mr Iskandar Ismail and his wife, Ms Ernawaty Sorianto (Erna). The company had produced many great works such as National Day Parade, Chinggay, Marina Bay Singapore Countdown, Spotlight Singapore, Childaid, Singapore Youth Festival, numerous musicals and many more. Apart from music composition, arrangement and directing, Project M is also actively educating young and aspiring musicians through its customized music enrichment programme and mentorship programme.

Armed with more than 30years of experience in teaching music, Ms Erna is also an examiner with Yamaha Music School. She has also clocked countless experiences as trainer and Chief Instructress in top music school in Indonesia, travelling widely to oversee the school's operations, developing programmes for various projects and training materials. She has trained many award-winning competition champions and frequently organizes concerts for schools.

Today, Erna offers to other businesses her expertise in music in the form of consultation or facilitation. She has been and continues to be a sought-after music teacher by students as well as a collaboration partner for music related projects/businesses.
